Officer Stav

-Shifts continue to be inconsistent to ensure coverage for youth groups, events and to ensure coverage and allow for my shift to not be known to the public.

- I pride myself on maintaining records and files and ensuring that everything is being accounted for with complaints. This allows us to keep track of past and present issues in a more organized way, knowing the outcome and timeline of incidents.

Events/Programs Attended in February and March

-PD Day Programs

-Library after school programs

-Wellness classes/ Programs

- Regularly Attending One Accord on a few Fridays and a few Tuesdays every month (allows for community engagement and getting to know the community youth) – Some issues with teens that have no contact between. Helps ensure safety of our youth as they never know which days I am dropping in.

-Lions Hall group

- Easter Bingo/ Market

-Each shift consists of me patrolling all of Millet regularly several times in a day.

Safety Updates – Helping ensure OH&S documents and health and safety program is up to date for all employees of The Town of Millet. As well as checking facilities that fall under the Towns responsibility and ensuring up to date safety measure with Public Works.

Coming up - with warmer weather –

-School Safety Crossing Day – Have the pilons set up and some fun incentives for those crossing safely in town (day to be determined)
